

VScroll

Fired when the user scrolls the table vertically.

Remarks

The VScroll event is fired when the user scrolls the table vertically by using either the vertical scrollbar or the keyboard. The user can scroll the table vertically by using navigation keys to move to other cells. See the NavKeyEnabled property for a list of navigation keys.

See Also

HScroll, NavKeyEnabled