3.x - App_Inserts

This insert has been the core insert for commuter modules, reports, service modules, and just about any stored procedure since the beginning of SRP FrameWorks. It is a general purpose insert with various declares, equates, and global variables. There is little dependency upon this insert in the SRP HTTP Framework but it cannot be removed without some effort to recreate the necessary declares and equates elsewhere.