

SRP Mail Utility

The SRP Mail Utility has been a reliable and feature rich way for OpenInsight to send emails to SMTP server for years. It was developed when existing solutions were limited to MAPI clients or lacked the ability to support HTML content or even send attachments. Even though solutions native to OpenInsight as well as third party options have surfaced over the years, the SRP Mail Utility continues to surpass them all in ease of configuration and rock solid performance.

Product InformationVersion HistoryDownload

Search this documentation