SRP Signature Control

The SRP Signature Control provides your application with a simple drawing surface where a user can sign their name. The signature can then be exported as a bitmap or windows metafile for use within OIPI.

Search this documentation