INVALUE

Applies to

Database associated controls.

Description

Sets or retrieves DEFPROP property of the control in internal format. The conversion is based on the conversion format defined for the control. If the control specifies default conversion, then the conversion pattern will reflect the contents of the dictionary column associated with the control, if any. No conversion is made if no conversion pattern is specified.