

HTTP_Inserts

This is the most commonly used insert by all HTTP service modules and helper routines. It contains declarations for the most often used subroutines and functions.