

SQL Calls

ODBC processing uses SQL commands to request information from the OpenInsight engine. We have received some reports of SQL calls that put double quotes around column names and table names. The OpenInsight SQL processor cannot handle this format in releases earlier than OpenInsight version 4.1.3. The workaround is to modify the SQL statement so that the column and table are not surrounded by quotes.